

PHILIP MERRILL
PRESIDENT & PUBLISHER

May 14, 1986

Mr. William J. Casey
Director
Central Intelligence Agency
Old Executive Office Bldg.
Room 345
Washington, D.C.

Dear Bill:

Apropos our conversation at Ed Feulner's dinner for you the other night I am following through. Very roughly the idea is to publish in The Washingtonian what might be called Casey's Case Against Leaks.

As you know, I am sympathetic to the government side of this and would like to accept your offer to write something for us.

Please forgive me for noting that about the only criteria from our point of view is that whatever is written should convey the strength and vigor of Bill Casey and not be standard staff-written bureaucratic prose.

I shall give your office a call tomorrow.

With warmest regards,

Sincerely,
